National Literacy Expert and Motivational Speaker Dr. Connie R. Hebert To Speak at the Crowne Plaza in Warwick

Warwick, Rhode Island, May 1, 2007 – Dr. Connie R. Hebert, nationally known literacy expert, will present a half day motivational seminar designed to inspire and energize educators of all grade levels and positions. This national event, entitled Leave NO Teacher Behind... will be held at the Crowne Plaza in Warwick on Saturday morning, May 19, 2007.

This affordable, half-day seminar is an energetic mix of humor, music, stories, modeling, video clips, raffles, displays and more. Participants will learn six habits of struggling readers, five limbs of teaching, four keys to motivation, three ways to differentiate instruction, two powerful tips for staying energized, and one child's insight on "how to catch a star." Dr. Hebert is dedicated to sharing her innovative, practical techniques for helping teachers successfully work with all readers before discouragement, poor habits, and low self-esteem become ingrained.

Teachers who recently attended Leave NO Teacher Behind... in Chicago wrote, "Great ideas! Lots of energy and enthusiasm," "What a wonderful idea. A whole morning devoted to re-energizing teachers! We really need these events," and "This presentation is down to earth and filled with practical strategies." In Orlando, teachers said "Exceptional seminar...wonderful practical ideas....great inspiration!" and "Leave NO Teacher Behind is an excellent seminar to motivate teachers to soar to their highest/greatest potential! It was great!"
